Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

PUBLISHED TUESDAY AND FRIDAY MORNING.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM.
SUBSCRIPTION $2 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Local reading notices 50 cents per line. Special advertising rates on application. No advertising notices accepted for less than one week.

Office 18 and 20 North Street, over Post Office.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1890.

The liscuit bakers have formed a trust and bread will rise.

The financial problem seems to be to keep the goldfishes out of the Silver Pool.

Hopkinsville will start into the new year with a brighter outlook than for five years.

Mr. Gladstone, the greatest of living Englishmen, celebrated his 81st birthday yesterday.

There will be another break in Clarksville on January 30. This time it will be the neck of John Gilmore, who murdered a man named Clardy.

An editor at Mountville, Ill., has gotten rid of a troublesome contemporary by marrying the editor, who happened to be a pretty young lady.

The report that Congressman-elect Jere Simpson, of Kansas, does not wear socks is probably due to the sock-hat's of his political opponents.

The boomers who went west to see the Cherokee strip have been disappointed and told to wait. The performance will not come off till the weather gets warmer.

Ezekiel Mettles, a Columbus, Ohio, editor, 60 years old, showed his contempt for the cold weather on Christmas day by marrying Miss Blizard, a pretty girl of only 21.

The only serious charge so far brought up against Judge H. B. Brown, the newly appointed Associate Justice, is that he looks like Granny Hear, of Massachusetts.

Dr. Koch's consumption cure has been counterfeited, and as neither the genuine nor the spurious lymph will cure, it is very difficult indeed to distinguish the one from the other.

The Owensboro Messenger does not speak advisedly in saying Dr. Clardy will not remain in the race for Governor. The Kentuckian has it from Dr. Clardy himself that he is in to stay.

Chief Big Foot could make more by surrendering. For instance he might get a paying job with the depositors of the busted banks of Clarksville who want somebody to kick them.

Jack Dempsey and Bob Fitzsimmons will fight at New Orleans Jan. 14, for $12,000 and the middle-weight championship. The men will enter the ring at 151 pounds and the battle will be the fistic event of the year.

President Harrison will hold a New Year's Reception from 11:30 a. m. till 2 p. m. The editor of this paper will do even better than that and receive at his office from 8 a. m. till 5 p. m., and any caller paying $2.00 will be supplied with a handsome autograph souvenir in the shape of a subscription receipt.

The special election in Ohio County to choose a delegate to the Constitutional Convention will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 31. Jno. J. McHenry, son of the deceased delegate, has been endorsed by the Democratic county committee and will succeed his father in all probability. He is a young business man of Hartford.

Mr. G. D. Chambers, Hancock county, delegate in the Constitutional Convention, having disgraced himself by getting on a howling drunk in Louisville and winding up in the station house, owes it to his constituents to at once resign the position he holds. Such a man is not fit to make a constitution for anybody or anything.

The New York World's new building is the highest business structure in America. It has twelve full stories and a dome with ten more stories and four observatories, making twenty-six floors in all. The building is 375 feet high to the top of the flagstaff. The editorial rooms are in the second story of the dome, more than 220 feet from the ground.

Hopkinsville's climate is just a little better than any other this side of the Rocky Mountains. Snow, wind and sleet prevailed nearly every where on Christmas day. Louisville and other Kentucky towns had deep snow and even Owensboro had sleet that broke down the trees by its weight, while here in Hopkinsville a gentle rain fell that was followed by bright and bracing weather just a few degrees below the freezing point.

A Chicago syndicate made a proposition to Fort Worth, Texas, to build a hotel in that city to cost $750,000 if the citizens would donate the ground to build it on. A site costing $13,000 was selected and in two weeks the citizens had raised the necessary amount as a subsidy to secure the finest hotel southeast of Chicago. Among the list of subscribers published in the Fort Worth Gazette appear the names of C. E. Trice and T. B. Burkbridge, former Hopkinsville boys, each of whom paid $1,500. Work on the building will be begun in April.

The President has officially proclaimed the coming World's Fair in the following manner:

I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States, by virtue of the authority vested in said office, do hereby declare and proclaim that such international exhibition will be opened on May 1, in the year 1893, in the City of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, and will not be closed before the last Thursday in October of the same year. And in the name of the Government and of the people of the United States, I do hereby invite all the nations of the earth to take part in the commemoration of an event that is preeminent in human history, and of lasting interest to mankind, by appointing representatives thereto and sending such exhibits to the World's Columbian Exposition, as will most fully and fully illustrate their resources, their industries and their progress in civilization.

Senator Hearst, of California, is sick, which calls attention to the fact that he is the only Democrat who would be succeeded by a Republican if he should die. On the other hand fourteen Republican Senators must outlive Democratic Legislatures to hold the party majority in the Senate.

A GOOD THING! To our friends and customers: We are pleased to inform you that we now have a sure cure for chills, which is perfectly sweet. It has no taste at all. It will cure any case of Chills. Quit taking the bitter Chill Tonics, and let us sell you a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Cure! Price 50 cents. One bottle holds enough to cure two or three cases of Chills. Come and let us show it to you. Your Friend, BECKNER LEVALL, Hopkinsville, Ky.

The wisest step "Quinine Jim" McKenzie ever took was when he followed the advice of his true friends and kept out of the Congressional race last summer. To-day he is one of the most prominent men in the nation and one of the leading controllers of the World's Fair, with a salary double that of a member of Congress. For any standpoint, he acted wisely by refusing to be dragged into a doubtful contest.

Government engineers at Sandy Hook last week successfully tested a new gun that throws shells fifteen miles. If there is any croaker in Hopkinsville who says his town is dead, in the face of last week's business, he ought to be rammed into such a gun and shot in the direction of Clarksville.

Commend to public approval the California liquid remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasant to the eye, and to the taste, and is gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels. It cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

Hon. Henry Watterson has been elected to succeed Hon. H. D. McKee as member of the National Democratic Committee. This very proper and fitting election will give satisfaction to every Democratic in Kentucky. Next to Grover Cleveland, Mr. Watterson is the most conspicuous promoter of Tariff Reform.

Why to Select a Test. Physicians claim that pure Sour Mash Whiskey taken in moderation is beneficial to one's health. Kentucky is noted for its pure Sour Mash Whiskey and while there are quite a number of good brands on the market, the old Siles Jones Whiskey, of which Laz Simon & Co., of Louisville, Ky., are the Sole Proprietors, is especially recommended for its medicinal qualities.

The Murray Ledger says: "Jim Garnett, of Trigg, will be a candidate for Congress next time, so says the Benton Tribune. And the probability is Hon. D. G. Park, of Mayfield, the efficient member of the State Democratic Executive Committee, will also be prominently known in the race. The people across the river can hardly do without Mr. Garnett's services as prosecuting attorney. But it is entirely too early now to begin agitating the next election of a Congressman, but suffice it to say Mr. Park will be known in the next race."

It is much more likely that Mr. Garnett will be a candidate for reelection to his present position in 1892.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price 75c per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

(Fazewell Press, Nov. 21st.) One of the most striking features of the W. C. Coup Rolling Museum is a wax image of Gen. Custer, representing blood flowing from the wound in his side and breast, bearing in the last struggle for breath. The figure is so life-like and the effect so startling that it surprises everybody.

A strange legend comes to us from the Sioux, who alone can tell the true history of that deadly ambush. They say that on the hillside where Custer fell now grows a plant never seen there before—a curious plant with tall, slender leaves, curved in the exact form of a snare, with edges so sharp as to inflict keen wounds upon unwary hands, and those who pluck it once soon drop it, so strangely cold and dimmy are its leaves. It bears a golden-bell, heart-shaped blossom, and in the center is one small spot of brilliant red, like a drop of blood. The Indians regard it with superstitious awe. They call it "Custer's heart," and cannot be induced to touch it.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Sam'l Fitcher's old, harmless and quick cure for Infants' and Children's Complaints. Superior to Castor Oil, Paregoric or Narcotic Syrup. Children cry for Castoria. Millions of Mothers bless Castoria.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC

It is as pleasant to the taste as lemon-syrup. The smallest infant will take it and never know it is medicine. Children cry for it. Chills once broken will not return. Good, you only pay the price of one or two Chill Tonics. No quinine needed. Its purgative action. Contains no poison. It purifies the blood and removes all malarial poison from the system. It is as large as any dollar tonic and RETAINS FOR 50 CENTS.

There are many imitations. TO BE THE GENUINE ASK FOR GROVE'S WARRANTED

CONVERSATION, Miss, Dec. 12, 1890. Please send me three dozen of your Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. I was pleased with the last from you last summer. The people were delighted with it. I have sold it to some children who were sick and weary and beginning, having had a chill once, and were half dead with it. I will send you three more boxes after receiving, having had a chill once, and were half dead with it. I will send you three more boxes after receiving, having had a chill once, and were half dead with it. I will send you three more boxes after receiving, having had a chill once, and were half dead with it.

DEATHS.

Esq. W. H. Cato, of the Seaton's Mill district, died suddenly on the 19th inst. of paralysis. He was on a visit at the house of Jas. R. Brown when he was taken ill without warning and lived but a short time. Esq. Cato was about 75 years old and had long been the most prominent Democrat in his section of the county. He was a member of the Hopkinsville bar and was a familiar figure about the Court House during Circuit Court.

Rev. Thos. E. Tiller, formerly pastor of the Peabroke Baptist church, died at Barlow, Fla., on the 25th, of consumption. He had gone to Florida in the hope of finding relief from the disease that caused his death. A good man has fallen.

COLORED.

The wife of Jim Wallace died in the city inst. Friday, of consumption, aged about 36 years.

Rayette Whittier died a few miles south of the city Thursday.

A colored boy, an asylum patient, died last Thursday.

Millie Poindester died in the city Saturday of typhoid fever, aged 10 years. An older sister died of a similar complaint about a week ago.

The members of the K. of P. Lodge at Trenton will give an oyster supper at that place Friday evening next. It promises to be a grand affair and more than two hundred invitations will be issued.

The dwelling house of Mr. Sims, at Cobb Station, was destroyed by fire one night last week. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. The loss, which was total, was not insured.

Mr. A. A. Metz has moved into his handsome new residence on South Main. It is one of the most attractive houses in town and is an ornament to the fashionable residence street upon which it is situated.

Can't Dr. Harrison do something for Tolliver Chappell, who assaulted an old colored man for roting the Democratic ticket? Tolliver's anticipation of the Force bill certainly deserves some notice from an administration which is exerting itself to get the bill passed.—Courier-Journal.

Capt. Jovett Henry, of this city, who was last week elected Lieut. Col. of the Third Regiment of State Guards, is in every way worthy of the promotion. He is well up in military tactics, is an enthusiastic soldier, a good disciplinarian and a thorough gentleman. He deserves to go even higher.

M. D. Vickers, a young man from near Madisonville, who was teaching school at Sacramento, has gotten into trouble by forging the name of the chairman of his board of trustees and drawing two months' pay. The latter claiming that Vickers was trying to beat him out of money due him for his board, has issued a warrant for his arrest.

Mr. R. R. Donaldson, of this city, recently with Rice & Co., as traveling agent for their tobacco, has accepted a similar position with the Jas. G. Butler Tobacco Company, of St. Louis, and will represent them in a southern territory next year. They will find Mr. Donaldson a valuable man and one who will build up their trade largely wherever he goes.

Rev. M. W. Tabor, pastor of the Universalist Church of this city, and Rev. Petty, a Baptist minister of Mayfield, will hold a religious debate of four days, in the Court House at Mayfield, beginning Jan. 3. Two propositions will be discussed, viz: First—The Scriptures teach a future general judgment, conducted by Christ in person. Affirmed by Petty and denied by Tabor. Second—The Scriptures teach the final holiness and happiness of all mankind. Tabor affirming and Petty denying. Rev. Petty is the challenging party.

The entertainment at Mr. C. B. Webb's Friday evening was one of the pleasantest and most fashionable events of the season. The attendance was just large enough to comfortably fill the handsome double parlors and the supper at 10 o'clock did credit to Mrs. Webb's already well-established reputation as a hostess. The guests of the evening were Miss Johnson and Miss Mildred Johnson, of Louisville, and they were assisted in receiving by Misses Mary Radford, Lizzie Moore, Cora Petree, Lellie Woodbridge, Mary Clark, Annie Wallis, Nanette Barbour, Mary Bell Mercer, Madge Fairbairn and Lella Meade, of Louisville.

If Your House is on Fire.

You put water on the burning timber not on the smoke. And if you have catch in the blood, not in your nose. Remove the impure cause, and the local effect subsides. To do this, take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which radically and permanently cures catarrh. It also strengthens the nerves. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Burned to Death.

A little child of the Marshal of Empire was burned so badly last Wednesday afternoon that it died a few hours later. Its clothing caught from the grate.

County Union.

The County Union will meet at the Court House on Jan. 2 and 3, 1891, for the first time for several months. The meeting is expected to be a very important one.

Another Double Edition.

The KENTUCKIAN will issue next week a double edition devoted to the tobacco trade. It will be profusely illustrated and a large number of extra papers will be printed for distribution. Business men desiring to take advantage of this great opportunity, will please hand in their advertisements not later than next Saturday.

Speaking Bagun.

The attorneys are now speaking in the Cowan Prowse contest. W. W. Clarke for Cowan and H. Ferguson for Prowse, began yesterday. G. M. Bell for Cowan, J. I. Landos for Prowse, H. J. Stites for Cowan, Jas. Brantlett for Prowse and Joe McCarroll for Cowan will follow in the order named. Argument will be concluded by Thursday.

House Burned.

Mr. J. H. Duval, a poor farmer living a few miles northeast of town, was burned out of house and home Tuesday evening. His dwelling, smoke house, barn and stables were all destroyed. His family was absent at the time and the loss was total. In his barn his crop of tobacco, all his farming implements and about 35 head of sheep were destroyed. His loss is probably $1,000 with $750 insurance on his dwelling house.

Killing No. 2 at Crofton.

(Correspondence KENTUCKIAN.)

Crofton, Ky. Dec. 28.—News has just reached here of the killing of Thos. Farmer, by Jas. Ellis Brown, son of Jas. R. Brown, six miles west of here. The report is that Farmer went to Jas. R. Brown yesterday evening under the influence of whisky and began to abuse Brown's family and Jas. E. Brown took him by the arm and asked him to go home, which Farmer agreed to do, but before they got far he drew a knife and made light at Brown and he (Brown) ran a short distance and picked up a piece of fence rail which he threw at Farmer, striking him in the breast near the heart and killing him instantly. Brown was still at large this morning.

Christmas Eve Killing.

Josh Maynor, col. shot and killed John Moore, a son of Dr. J. R. Moore, at Crofton, on the afternoon of Dec. 21. It is understood that the trouble was from an old quarrel over a game of cards. The parties met in front of O. A. West's saloon and after some hot words Moore was seen to throw up his hands as if to strike and Maynor pulled out a pistol and fired in his face. The ball entered below his left eye and death followed in five minutes. Robt. Moore, a brother of John, was near by and the negro struck him on the head with the pistol, knocking him down also. Great excitement ensued and there were threats of lynching Maynor but Sheriff West happened to be at Crofton and took charge of him and brought him to jail on the 5 o'clock train. John Moore was 21 years old and Maynor is about the same age. The latter will set up a plea of self-defense and claim that Moore was armed. The examining trial will be held before Judge Morrow on Jan. 2. This is the first time since the Stanley-Edling case that a man has been killed in this county by one of a different race. The white and colored men as a rule fall out and fight each other.

Jones & Banks, the Seventh street tonorial artists, have had their shop newly papered, painted and otherwise improved in appearance as well as comfort.

The manager of the Peerless Minstrel has received another proposition from the managers of the Opera House at Evansville, Ky., to play two nights the latter part of January. As some of the members are absent the proposition will probably not be accepted at present.

The Christmas enroute by the Methodist children, at the Opera House, was a big success. It was largely attended.
